

This whole issue just seems entirely undemocratic. It certainly makes me question why the FCC has allowed concentration of so many media outlets by one company who decide to "force" their own political views on to the air. Shame on Sinclair and should the FCC not take action, shame on the FCC as well.

Good Day